The President's Message.

The President sent his Annual Message to Congress yesterday. A synopsis of it will be found in our telegraph columns this morning. We will publish the Message in full on Friday or Saturday morning.

The extracts from Reports of the several Departments, will also be found.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—The correspondent of the St. Paul Minnesotian, writing from Minneapolis, tells rather a tough story about shooting. The circumstances, as detailed, are as follows: "During the time of the annual payment made to the Chippewas a year ago, a Chippewa warrior was shot dead by another of a different band, of the same tribe. Although strong efforts were made at the time by the civil authorities to effect an arrest, yet the murderer escaped. Nothing was known of his whereabouts until he turned up last week at Swan River. Having entered the camp, the squaw of the murdered warrior recognized him. She immediately procured a gun and shot him dead. His brother, who happened to be present, levelled his rifle and killed the squaw on the spot. Her brother then shot the latter, and was in turn killed. Thus, four had fallen to satiate the retaliating vengeance so sweet to savages who have no proper conception of what justice is.

WEST BEND ITEMS.—We learn from the Washington Co. Democrat that a man named DRESROTHE was run away with by a team of colts, thrown from a wagon, and his back broken. No hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The house of RODALPH ASCHKE, of West Bend, took fire on Saturday, destroying considerable clothing, &c., but was ultimately extinguished by his exertions alone.

THE RIFLE movement in England is receiving encouragement from the ladies. Lady MARY THOMPSON of Sheriff Hutton Park, has sent her name as an honorary member of the First West York Rifle volunteers. "We trust," says the Yorkshire Gazette "that this example will be followed by other ladies, whose countenance and approval of the volunteer movement it is so important to extend."

HORRIBLE DEATH.—The English papers tell of a murderer near Manchester, England, who tried unsuccessfully to commit suicide by cutting his throat. When the cut seemed well, he was taken out to be hung. The force of the fall rent open the wound and the rope sawing in caused him unspeakable agony. He was over an hour dying.

IMPORTATION OF DRY GOODS.—The annual importation of dry goods at the port of New York is estimated at one hundred and ten millions of dollars. It is said that the sales of A. T. STEWART & Co. for the year, amount to seven millions of dollars, of which eight hundred thousand dollars are profits.

FIRE AT ST. PETER, MINN.—On the night of the 21st, the office of the Free Press at St. Peter, Minn., was consumed. Not a thing was saved. The loss of Messrs. DODGE & MOORE, the proprietors, can not be less than $4,000.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. J. C. RICHMOND preached in the Pineries Sabbath before last, to a crowded audience. The Wisconsin Pinery says that Mr. RICHMOND's "craziness consists in his decided ability."

A HEAVY FARMER.—One farmer in Illinois sold 2,500 head of cattle this fall, yielding him $75,000. They were all fattened on his 3,000 acre farm in La Salle County.

GOV. SEWARD ABROAD.—The Paris correspondent of the Evening Post says:

"Gov. Seward has been the object of special attentions from the King of Belgians. He was presented to the King in company with the Prince and Princesses of Prussia, and invited by the King to dine with them at his table—a compliment never paid before, that I remember, to any American Senator. The Brussels journal, in giving an account of the ceremonies, says: Mr. Seward, ancien Gouverneur de New York, est un des membres les plus influents du Senat des Etats Unis.' I think it safe to infer, from the unusual hospitality extended to Mr. Seward by the Emperor of France and the King of Belgium to say nothing of other potentates of the Old World, that, whatever they may think of European Republicanism, American Republicanism is not held in low estimation among them. I understand that a diplomatic dinner is to be given to Senator Seward at the Spanish legation on Saturday. That looks rather favorable than otherwise for the Cuban negotiations under the next Administration, does it not?"

OPPOSED TO HANGING.—Mrs. SWISHELM, the vigorous editress of the Visitor, opposes the hanging of Mrs. BILANSKY—in fact, opposes hanging generally, and concludes thus:

If Mrs. Bilansky is hung, Judge Palmer, Governor Ramsey, the Sheriff, and all aiders and abettors are as much murderers as she can possibly be, and as much deserving of the gallows. Acting as the representatives of the Government, they have no more right to take life than Mrs. Bilansky had, acting as her own representative. The stream cannot rise above its fountain; and if the individual has no right to take life, no collection or combination of individuals can have such right. There is no conceivable number of nothings which will make a something; and no conceivable number of individuals, having no right to take life, can combine to arrogate or confer such right.

FIRE AT JEFFERSON, WIS.—TWO MEN SUFFOCATED.—On Friday morning last, about 9 o'clock, smoke was seen issuing from a small house, in Jefferson, about two miles from Hazel Green; the door was broken open, and it was found filled with smoke. After a search, two men named Hocking and Noble, miners by occupation, were found and drawn out to the open air. One of them was entirely dead, and the other gasped only two or three times. There were no female inmates in the house. They were both married men. Bottles were found near the place where the men were, which explains the probable leading cause of their death.—Galena Ad.

THE CAMPAU INQUEST—VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY.—On Saturday the jury in the inquisition on the body of Mr. Campau, were unanimous in the rendering of the verdict, that "J. Barnabas Campau came to his death by accidentally falling into the water of the Detroit River, between the hours of 10 1-2 o'clock of the evening of Tuesday, the 29th day of November, and 1 o'clock of the morning of Wednesday, the 30th day of November."—Detroit Advertiser, Dec. 26.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President Anxious for an Organization.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.

The President has instructed several Democratic members that the House must be organized immediately, and without regard to party consideration.

The Western Democratic members are in favor of it. The Western Mail contractors waited on the President in a body, informing him and his Cabinet that unless they received their pay, no mails would be carried after January 1st. Forty Democratic members, mostly Southern, have informed the President that they never will consent to the election of a Republican Speaker. He therefore calls upon the Northern Democrats either to refuse their votes, or join the Republicans upon the plurality rule.

The President informed me that he should have sent in his Message on Friday, but delayed it upon the assurance of the Democrats that the House should be organized that day. He says now that he will send it on Tuesday. The Southern Democrats have agreed to refuse its acceptance.

Ex-Gov. McRae, of Miss., tells me that the House will organize on Monday. He is a recognized leader of the Democratic side.—Correspondence Cincinnati Gazette.

Corwin's Union-Meeting Joke.

Correspondence of the Evening Post.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21, 1859.

A good joke is told of Corwin and a couple of fire-eaters who yesterday morning chanced to be breakfasting together at their hotel.—One of the Southern gentlemen unfolded a morning paper to learn the particulars of the great Union meeting in New York. You must know that notwithstanding the vouferations of the disunionists, they have their eyes open to the effect in the North which their threats may have upon the people.—Our Southern friend opened his newspaper carefully and turned to the telegraphic column. His eyes soon rested upon the despatch, and he muttered aloud: "Great union meeting—thirty thousand present—General Scott nominated for President." The paper suddenly dropped, and the reader exclaimed to his friends. "D—n it—the Union meeting in New York has been pulling Scott forward for the Presidency. Why, I consider Scott to be a more dangerous man to the South than Seward himself!"

"Ah, yes sir! no doubt of it," said Tom Corwin in his deep bass, "no doubt of it—for Scott is a fighting man!" The pungency of his joke any one can see who has heard the constant threats of disunion by Southern members, of late.

AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION AND LECTURES AT YALE COLLEGE.—It is proposed to have what may be termed a great agricultural "protracted meeting" at Yale College during the present winter, to last through the whole month of February. The exercises are to consist of lectures by leading reliable men, eminent in the different departments of agriculture, horticulture, stock-raising, etc. About eighty lectures are provided for,—two to four each day,—each lecture to be followed by conversational exercises, questions to the lecturers, and discussions. Twenty or thirty gentlemen, well known in Agriculture, besides the Professors in Yale College, are engaged to take part in the exercises as lecturers and teachers, while numerous other eminent agriculturists and horticulturists have expressed their intention to be present and participate in the discussions.

Among the lecturers are Lewis F. Allen, Cassius M. Clay and Francis Rotch, on Cattle; Sanford Howard and Dr. Gulliver, on Horses; C. L. Flint and others, on the Dairy; Hon. Marshall P. Wilder, Dr. C. W. Grant, Messrs. P. Barry and R. G. Pardee, on Fruit; Prof. Porter on Organic Chemistry; Prof. S. W. Johnson on Agricultural Chemistry; Prof. B. Silliman, jr., on Meteorology; J. Stanton Gould on Grasses and Irrigation; Judge French on Drainage; Joseph Harris on Cereals; Prof. Brewer on Commercial Plants, (flax, hemp, tobacco, etc.;) Geo. B. Emerson on Forest Trees; Dr. Comstock on Fish Culture; Donald G. Mitchell (Ik Marvel,) on Rural Economy.

The whole is to be free, except the nominal charge of say ten dollars or less to meet the necessary expenses of lecturers and other incidentals. The occasion will doubtless be one of great interest to cultivators generally, and call together a large attendance from all parts of the country. Inquiries with reference to this project may be addressed to Prof. John A. Porter, New Haven, Conn.—Agriculturist.

SUPPOSED SLAVER ON THE COAST OF GEORGIA.—Capt. Hill, of the bark Sarah Ann, loading at St Marys, says that two weeks yesterday he heard firing off that port, and that a gentleman of St. Marys, who was at Fort Clinch, saw with a spy-glass, distinctly, an American armed steam schooner firing into and chasing two schooners—one small, supposed to be a slaver; the other larger, carrying a topsail, supposed to be a tender. The larger one stood out north and east, followed by the steamer, which brought her to in some four or five miles. While boarding and examining her papers, the smaller schooner slipped off to the southward. The steamer was said to have been the Harriet Lane. Not long after this affair she went into St. Mary and searched all the vessels in that port.—Savannah Republican, Dec. 14.

INSURRECTION IN SCHOOL.—A servile insurrection, not in the United States, but at Plover, occurred one day last week, in the school. It seems that some of the boy charges not liking the way in which the Pedagogue proposed "to teach the young idea how to shoot determined to give a practical illustration of the "delightful task to rear the tender mind," so pitched into the teacher and gave him a few lessons in the "manly art of self defence. Order, the first law of Heaven, was for a time forgotten; books and slates, with problems solved by the rule of three, became missails of offensive and defensive war, and for a time it seemed as though learning had left her seat. But "knowledge is power," and as the teacher had the most, he with some help subdued the insurgents and restored order.—Pinery, 23d.

SAD SUICIDE.—Eldridge Gerry Paige, the originator, and for many years leading editor of the New York Mercury, committed suicide on the 4th inst., at San Francisco, California, where he had resided for a number of years. Mr. Paige was the author of "Dow Jr's Sermons," and a "fellow of infinite jest." No man possessed a warmer heart or more open hand. There will be a host of sincere mourners for his untimely end. A terrible disease which crippled his bodily energies for many years, was probably the principal cause which led to his self-destruction.

MURDER CASE AT JUNEAU—CONVICTION OF MARTIN KNEIFER.—We learn, by Colonel Rodolf, who came from Juneau, Thursday morning, that the jury brought in Martin Kneifer, guilty of manslaughter in the second degree. The Statute fixes the penalty of such crimes from four to seven years. The Judge, it was thought, would give the longest term of imprisonment.—La Crosse Union, 24th.

TELEGRAPH EXTENSION.—Fifty-six miles of telegraph line has just been completed, filling up the gap on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, between this city and Minnesota junction, thus opening direct telegraphic communication between Chicago and Fond du Lac.—Janesville Gazette.

Later from California.

MALLOY'S STATION, Dec. 25.

The overland mail, with San Francisco dates to the 5th inst, passed here this morning.

The Washoe silver mines continue to yield richly.

There were heavy rains on the 23d and 24th, which caused much damage on the Calaveras and its tributaries.

The quartz mills of Col. Fremont, in Mariposa county, have commenced operations; being the largest establishment of the kind in California.

Mr. Eldridge Gerry Paige, anthor of Dow, Jr.'s Patent Sermons, committed suicide on the 4th inst.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec 27—3 P. M.

The steamship Tennessee has arrived from Vera Cruz the 22d inst. The news is unimportant.

The bark Dean, from Havre for Vera Cruz, was lost on the 9th inst., in a gale near Vera Cruz. The crew were saved, but the vessel was a total loss.

De Gollado had arrived at Vera Cruz.

Tampico was quiet and no attack was apprehended. Marques had been imprisoned by Miramon, charged with insubordination. The liberals had surprised and captured Teatitlan and Oaxaca.

No Speaker as Yet.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27—3 P. M.

The Congressional news of yesterday is unimportant. No vote for Speaker.

DEATH OF AN ASSEMBLYMAN.—We regret to announce the sudden and untimely death of Mr. ANDREW EBLE, the Assemblyman elect from our adjoining town of Wauwatosa. It occurred, we believe last Saturday, under the following distressing circumstances: He was hunting deer with a friend, in Fond du Lac county, near the line of Washington county. They had wounded one, which got away from them, and as night came on they gave up the pursuit. The next morning they tracked him into the brush, but could find no track where he had come out. Mr. EBLE then went in to drive him out, if alive, and directed his friend to keep a sharp look out at a certain thicket, where he thought the deer would be most likely to emerge.—After searching in the bush, Mr. EBLE was coming out at the very place he had pointed out as where the deer would probably try to escape, when his friend hearing the noise there, pointed his gun and fired upon him before he was fairly out. He lived but part of a day.

Mr. EBLE was a German, an old resident of Wauwatosa. He was a well known, enterprising man, and his death will make a vacancy that will be noticed in this community, especially among his German fellow-citizens.

CHRISTMAS AT THE NEWHALL HOUSE.—The Christmas Holiday was kept, in good, old-fashioned style, at the Newhall House.—Dinner was served at 4 o'clock for 300 guests, and there were no vacant places around the well-filled tables. The bill of fare included every variety of game to be found in our State; with fish, oysters and lobsters from the sea-shore; a majestic array of meats; and a profusion of vegetables, pastry and confectionery. The ornamented dishes were models of taste and skill.

The merry company spent some two hours, or more, at the dinner table, and then the spacious Hall was cleared and a social dance agreeably filled up the evening.

FESTIVAL OF THE WELCH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—The festival of the Welch Church at STEVEN'S Hall, on Christmas night was largely attended. The Welch Choir from Racine discoursed some very fine music, both in Welch and English. Dr. HANSON presided and made a few brief but happy remarks, after which supper was announced, and the good folks repaired to the supper room where were spread out an almost infinitude of luxuries.

Other short speeches were afterwards made by Rev. Mr. LOVE and Rev. Mr. HELMER, and the audience finished the evening in a social manner.

POCKET DIARY FOR 1860.—By far the neatest pocket diary that we have ever seen is that gotten up by KIGGINS & KELLOGG of New York, and for sale at the paper store of Messrs. NOONAN & MCNABB, 217 East Water Street, a few doors North of the Sentinel office. It is not too large to carry with ease in one's pocket, and it unites the convenience of a diary, almanac, pocket book, and card case. The pockets are elegantly lined with pink silk, and altogether it forms as appropriate a New Year's gift, in a small way, as any young man or maiden, old man or matron, could bestow upon a friend.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.—The A Class, of the First Ward Public School, met together Monday evening and, procuring a large four horse sleigh, proceeded to the house of Mr. HOLSTON, near Wauwatosa, where they were received by Miss CARRIE HOLSTON, a class-mate, and entertained in a most sumptuous manner. It was a pleasant party, and keenly enjoyed by all who participated.

PARLOR THEATRICALS.—Monday evening was enlivened at several of our citizens' houses by private theatricals. At one house the favorite and beautiful drama of the Lady of Lyons was performed to a select number of friends, and at another place we had the pleasure of witnessing several tableaux gotten up by young folks with creditable care and taste.

THE WARE ROOMS of C. W. & J. T. MOORE & Co., dry goods merchants, New York, are said to be superior to any thing of the kind in that city. This firm are now among the oldest jobbers in New York, having been in business about thirty years and passed unscathed the epochs of 1837 and 1857.

Western merchants, when in the East, should visit this establishment.

MUNICIPAL COURT, DEC. 27.—Justus Reinhold, effecting an unauthorized insurance. Examination had. Discharged by court.

John Kelly, disorderly; fined $1,00 and costs; paid.

Cornelius Murphy, assault and battery; parties settled, and paid costs.

CHRISTMAS.—Take down the Christmas tree, for the fruit is all plucked. Christmas is over. It passed smoothly; the roads were well sprinkled with snow and it was not hard to glide over the day in warm cutters. We believe every body spent a merry Christmas. We saw nothing to the contrary.

PERSONAL.—We are glad to welcome back to Milwaukee, our friend, DANIEL SHAW, formerly editor of the News in this city, and more recently one of the U. S. Land Officers, at Superior, Douglas County. Mr. SHAW looks none the worse for two years' roughing it on Lake Superior, but seems to enjoy very much a return to his old home.

ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL.—The Festival in aid of St. Mary's Hospital comes off at Albany Hall this Wednesday afternoon and evening. A great variety of useful and ornamental articles will be offered for sale, and as the charity is a most commendable one, we hope to see it abundantly patronized.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT THE JAIL.—Sheriff LANGWORTHY gave a Christmas dinner at the Jail, Monday afternoon, to the thirty prisoners now confined there. The dinner was an excellent one and was duly enjoyed by the guests of the occasion. It was a kindly act on the part of the Sheriff.

DEATH OF CONDUCTOR TOWNSEND.—HENRY TOWNSEND, a Freight Conductor on the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R., who was caught and crushed between two cars at Milton, on Saturday last, died within a few hours after the accident. His remains were interred at Genessee, yesterday afternoon.

FIGHT.—On Saturday last, a difficulty which had existed some time between S. S CONOVER and Capt. CASWELL, resulted in a "rough-and-tumble," in which Mr. CONOVER seems to have been worsted. We understand that a warrant was taken out and that he was arrested, his case to come on this morning.

WHAT IS FRESCO.—Our friend of the Wisconsin, in speaking of the new Masonic Hall, says it is ornamented in fresco in the most elaborate style. He is mistaken; there is not a square inch of fresco in the Hall.

MASONIC ELECTION, INSTALLATION AND PRESENTATION.—At the annual communication of Independence Lodge, No. 80, held in this city on the 23d inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

W. M.—A. N. H. CARPENTER.
S. W.—CHARLES T. DUTTON.
J. W.—H. B. COE.
Treas.—JOHN S. HARRIS.
Sec'y.—E. D. PARSONS.
S. D.—W. P. NEAL.
J. D.—J. S. BUCK.
M. W., LUTHER M. TRACY, Grand Master of Masons in this State, attended and installed the officers in ample form. At the conclusion of the impressive ceremonies of installation, W., M. L. YOUNGS, Grand Lecturer of the State, for and in behalf of the Lodge, after a most happy and pertinent address, presented to the Grand Master a fine gold headed cane, suitably inscribed, and ornamented with engravings of various emblems of the Order. Grand Master TRACY responded in a most appropriate and interesting manner.

Those outside of the Order who know Dr. TRACY will readily appreciate the high esteem and veneration felt for him by the fraternity of which he is the head in this jurisdiction. Adventitious circumstances neither add to nor diminish the regard for such a man; for dear as he is in his great office—and none are more so—yet all feel that in him

"The rank is but the guinea's stamp,
The man's the gowd for a' that."

THE MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Anniversary of St. John the Evangelist was duly observed last night by one of the most brilliant festivals ever witnessed in this city. The occasion was the installation of the officers of Milwaukee Lodge No. 3, and the dedication of their new Masonic Temple, the gift of Byron KILBOURN. After the ceremonies a short and pointed address was made by Major CONSTABLE, prayer was offered and the audience adjourned to the Ball Room.

In the course of the evening, a beautiful jeweled regalia was presented to the presiding officer, Mr. KILBOURN, on behalf of the Lodge, by Mr. H. C. PALMER, and an elegant bible was also presented by Mr. SEAMAN to the lodge. At 11 o'clock, the party sat down to a sumptuous supper and when we left there was no abatement of festivity.

SIXTH WARD SCHOOL.—At the close of the exercises of the school in the Sixth Ward on Friday evening Dec. 23d, the parents of the pupils and others intersted, organized a meeting by appointing Mr. I. A. LAPHAM, Chairman, and the following resolutions, offered by Mr. HARVEY CURTIS, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, We have learned with regret that Mr H. W. SPAULDING, Principal of the Sixth Ward School, has resigned his connection therewith and is soon to leave the city, therefore,

Resolved, That we, as citizens of Milwaukee and friends of education hereby express our regret for the necessity of this resignation.

Resolved, That we hereby tender to Mr. SPAULDING our warmest thanks for his labors among us in the cause of education which we shall ever hold in grateful remembrance—and that our best wishes will go with him wherever his lot may be cast.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished Mr. SPAULDING.

I. A. LAPHAM, Chairman.
R. W. PIERCE, Secretary.
Milwaukee, Dec. 23d, 1859.

THE STEAMSHIP MILWAUKEE ARRIVED—STEAM TUG MCQUEEN SUNK.—The steamship Milwaukee has come into our river to go into the dry dock of Messrs. Doolittle and Miller, on the North Branch. The gallant little tug McQueen, has fallen a victim to her generous exertions for her big brother craft, and lies sunk at Sturgis and Buckingham's dock, having stove a hole in her hull in breaking the way through the ice at the mouth of the river. She is just even with her deck to the water's edge, and will be got out readily. The Milwaukee lies on the north side of the river, below Rush street bridge. From present appearances it will be no light undertaking to force a way for a mile and a half up the river, if it be undertaken, the ice now having made very solid. The Milwaukee is a noble craft, and we don't wonder our neighbors down the lake are proud of her. She will come out in the spring as good as new.—Chicago Press & Tribune of yesterday.

THE YOUNG LADY PUPILS of Prof. LOUIS HENES will give a concert, under the direction of their teacher, this evening, at Concert Hall, otherwise known as Light Guard Hall. It is to consist of vocal and instrumental music, embracing duetts, quartettes, choruses and pieces for single performers.

Prof. HENES is one of our most accomplished and successful music teachers, hence we anticipate an entertaining performance this evening. It is to commence at half past seven o'clock. Tickets twenty-five cents.

EVERGREENS.—Several of our city churches are most tastefully decorated with evergreens. The church of St. Paul (Episcopal) presents a really beautiful appearance inside. The boughs and sprigs are wreathed into festoons, and drape the pillars, &c., with a sylvan air quite refreshing in mid-winter.

THE friends of Rev. Mr. UNDERWOOD, at Wauwatosa, propose to pay him a donation visit on Thursday afternoon and evening, the 19th inst. They will be pleased to see as many from the city as can make it convenient to come out.

STRICKLAND & Co. have a very superior lot of diaries for 1860. We acknowledge the receipt of one from their store, which beats anything of the kind we have seen this year. Ivory paper and everlasting pencil. A most convenient and pocketable companion.

DIARIES FOR 1860.—We are indebted to Messrs. NOONAN & MCNAB for one of their "Pocket Diaries for 1860." It is neat, convenient and complete. Business men will find them very handy.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO RAYMOND for a can of his bivalves. If every oyster was an adjective, RAYMOND might form some idea of our delight in swallowing his fun.

CARD.—C. W. & J. T. MOORE & Co., of New York, will remove to their new and spacious ware rooms, Nos. 326, 328 and 330, Broadway, on the first of January, when they will be happy to see their former customers and friends, and all cash and prompt paying buyers from the West. They will endeavor to make their stock of foreign and domestic dry goods as attractive as any in the East.

Their new salesrooms cover an area of half an acre to a floor. dec28j166d1w

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—Le Bon Ton for January; Atlantic Monthly for January; Electric Magazine for January; Godey's Magazine for January; How could he help it; or, The Heart Triumphant, by A. S. Roe. A splendid assortment of diaries for 1860.—Knickerbocker Magazine for January; Presticeana, by Geo. D. Prentice; Benish, by Augusta J. Evans; "Impending Crisis," by Helper. Don't forget to call at No. 25 Wisconsin street.

WE THINK IT A CAPITAL SUGGESTION that a most sensible way of manifesting a thoughtful affection for a wife and family is to make a holiday present of a policy of Life Insurance, and would urge our readers to step into the office of our Wisconsin Company and get one. dec22d6t

SUPERIOR CONFECTIONERY.—We are indebted to Mr. JAMES HETH, on Eighth street, between Sycamore and Clybourn streets, for a choice assortment of mixed candies. Mr. HETH informs us that he superintends personally, the manufacture of all candies made in his establishment; uses the best stock that can be obtained, and sells the same for twenty-five cents per pound. Those wishing choice candies for the holidays will save money by giving him a call. dec23j150d1w

FAMILIES WISHING A "tip-top" article of Maple Syrup can be supplied at the Grocery Store of ALLCOTT BROTHERS, 22 Chestnut street. dec28j163d3t.

TAXES.—City and County Orders for sale, or taxes paid, by E. P. ALLIS, dec6j165d1w Office under State Bank.

IF ANY OF OUR READERS want good dry lumber they will find it at the Saginaw Lumber Yard of MABBETT & BATES. They keep a large stock of all lengths, common boards, siding, 2nd clear lumber, two years old, and have the largest stock of shingles to be found in Milwaukee, all of which they sell as cheap as any other yard in town. Try them once and you will again. dec24d1f.

DIED:

Of yellow fever, in Hempstead, Austin Co., Texas, Mrs. NELLA J. IRWIN, wife of L. C. IRWIN, Esq., late of Milwaukee.

Mrs. IRWIN was formerly a communicant in St. James' Church in this city, and was much beloved of all who knew her. She met her death with great composure; having sent kind messages to her former pastor and other friends. She had the consolation of an affectionate husband's presence with her, although otherwise far from "home." But we trust that she has now entered an Eternal Home of everlasting joy; having died "in the confidence of a certain faith; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope; in favor, as we trust with God, and in perfect charity with the world."

I.

At her residence on East Water Street, No. 285, Miss KATIE M. WALKER, of quick consumption, aged 19 years, 9 months and 4 days.

Funeral at her late residence on Wednesday at 1½ o'clock P. M. Friends of the deceased are invited to attend.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—3 P. M.

A large number of the mail contractors have informed, and continue to inform the P. O. Department, that unless Congress makes appropriations early in January, for the payment of what is due them, they cannot continue the service which has been maintained by them in a manner altogether satisfactory to the Department, but at great sacrifices to their credit, which is now nearly exhausted. Should they surrender their contracts, the extraordinary expenses of restoring the service will amount to not less than $1,000,000. Probably their expectation that Congress would promptly pass a bill for their relief, has proved disastrous to them. The Department has the money to pay all the sums now due for the quarter ending with September, but not the legal authority for that purpose. The expenses of the current quarter are not due till February. Over $4,000,000 are required on account of arrearages for the year ending with last June. The statement of indebtedness to contractors, on which they have raised money to the amount of $2,000,000, are in the hands of persons in this city.

Reliable advices just received here from Mexico state that the reverses of the Constitutionalists were not as disastrous as newspaper accounts represent. After Gen. Degollado's defeat in the vicinity of Queraro, and during which Miramon admitted that the reactionists could not in the end triumph; and that while he was in favor of liberal principles, he could not openly oppose them without rendering himself obnoxious to the charge of being traitor to the party in whose service he was engaged. This admission having reached the church party, caused much indignation against him. The report that prevailed at Vera Cruz at the time Lemesses left that place, that a revolution in the city of Mexico, in favor of Marqueza was meditated, was regarded as of significant importance. The treaty recently made with the Jaurez government will probably be received at the state department to-morrow.

The proposals for the remainder of $20,000,000 of Treasury notes were opened today; the bids amounted to about 375,000; the sum of $120,000 was taken at 5 2 4 per cent, and the balance will be distributed pro rata among other bidders who all offered 6 per cent.

THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 28, 1859.

The Republican National Convention.

We publish, this morning, the call for the Republican National Convention, which is to assemble at Chicago, on the 13th day of June next, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.—The call is addressed to the Republican electors in each State and to all others who are willing to co-operate with them in the great work of setting bounds to the extension of Slavery; in preserving from the baneful influence of the "peculiar institution" the Territories of the Republic; in restoring the ancient landmarks of the Federal Government; in cleansing the Augean Stables at Washington; in vindicating the rights of the States and maintaining the integrity of the Constitution and the Union. The duty which will be devolved upon this Convention is of a most important character, and upon its wise and faithful discharge will depend the issue of the Presidential election. Great care, therefore, should be exercised in the selection of the Delegates who are to represent the Republican party on this momentous occasion, and who are to choose our standard bearers for the great contest of 1860. In view of the steady progress of Republican principles for the last four years, and of the utter demoralization of the Sham Democracy, we cannot doubt that, with wisdom and harmony in our Republican councils and the nomination of true and tried men to lead our columns, the election next November will result in a signal triumph for the Republican cause.

The Composition of the Senate Committees.

We regard the composition of the Senate Committees as an unmitigated political outrage. The chairmanship of every committee of any importance was given to a Southern Democrat. No Democrat from a Free State was assigned any leading position. The whole programme was sectional in the extreme. The Southern Democrats were neither just, generous nor magnanimous in thus appropriating to themselves all the political honors of the Senate. While the Democrats are opposing the Republicans as a sectional party, it does not look well to see them fill all the Senate committees up with chairmen from one section of the Union. The free States have Democratic Senators that are well qualified, by ability and long service in that body, for the highest positions, and there is no excuse for such an unequal arrangement. The designers of that programme could not have assisted the Republicans more effectually than they have by ignoring the existence of Democratic Senators from the free States. —Cincinnati Enquirer, (Dem.)

Here is another indignant protest, from a Northern Democratic paper, against the unfair and intensely "sectional" arrangement of the Senate Committees. But why is it that no democratic paper in all Wisconsin has yet lifted up its voice in condemnation of this gross injustice? Why is it that they silently acquiesce in the Southern programme of appropriating to that quarter of the Union the championship of every important Committee? Why is it that they do not rebuke this concerted plan to ostracise Northern Democratic Senators and to degrade DOUGLAS for his alleged heresy in the Lecompton issue?

Governor Seward.

This gentleman, whose return from Europe is hourly looked for, continues to be assailed and traduced, in Congress and out of it, by the Slavery propogandists and their Doughface allies. The Richmond papers are especially savage upon him, and a recent number of the Richmond Whig contains the following grave accusation:

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

To the Editor of the Whig:—Seward's trip to Europe signifies more than a disposition to evade consequences of the foray at Harper's Ferry. Be assured that he is there, engaged in his infernal and diabolical machinations to demolish and uproot this glorious fabric of liberty from base to heifer. He knows full well that it would be annihilation to surrender now his schemes of disunion, murder and destruction to the South.—Perhaps he is bargaining away the South for Canada—that he may rule a Northern Confederacy—and put the South under gubernatorial Sanfedrists, to be cultivated with manumitted slave labor, for England's benefit. Seward would rejoice at such an event. Having gained access to England's Court there is no foretelling what his country may not do with the willing hearts of Exeter Hall.

The appearing of Gov SEWARD in the United States Senate, at this juncture of affairs, will be heartily welcomed by the freemen of the entire North.

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY.—HENRY WELLS, JOHN BUTTERFIELD, WILLIAM G. FARGO, JOHNSTON LIVINGSTON, ALEX. HOLLAND, and their associates, members of the present American Express Company, which, by its limitation, expires on the 31st of the present month, have organized a new joint stock company, under the same name, for the purpose of carrying on the express business in all its various branches. The new company will commence business on the second day of next month. The stock of the old company was divided into $100 shares. The shares of the new company have been raised to $500. For some time previous to last August the company paid annual dividends ranging from 12 to 16 per cent. The stock, of course, was held high, but, owing to the approaching expiration, it has declined considerably, and it is stated that the last sale was made at about 80c. It is said that the stockholders in the old company will have the privilege of transferring at par.

ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING.—The denunciation of HELPER's Impending Crisis in the Democratic papers have helped that book to an immense circulation. It was hardly heard of before. Now, however, it is in requisition everywhere. The Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Tribune, writes: "The demand here was totally different from that which ordinarily prevails for new books. Instead of a single copy, purchasers call for them by dozens and hundreds for country circulation. Clubs were formed in the interior, taking copies enough to supply a whole town. A single individual took 700 for gratuitous distribution. Multitudes of them have gone down to Delaware, and still larger quantities have gone and are still going into Maryland, enough, before the current that way ceases, to inoculate the whole State.

AMERICAN TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.—The Buffalo Courier understands that the American Transportation Company is going into liquidation. "Some four years ago," says the Courier, "it commenced business with a paid-up capital of $1,000,000 and has been managed by able and experienced men. Disasters at sea and disasters on shore have at length brought it to its present position.—It has passed through three years of as unprofitable business as Buffalo and the region of the lakes has ever experienced."

REMARKABLE STATEMENT.—The European Times (Liverpool paper), of December 4, has the following remarkable statement: "It is asserted that LOUIS NAPOLEON has actually bought Venice and her territory from Austria for four hundred millions of francs, and that the French Emperor is mainly induced to act thus in order that he may realize his pledge of freeing Italy 'from the Alps to the Adriatic.'"

DISAVOWALS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune telegraphed that: "Messrs. HILL, of Georgia, and BURNETT, of Kentucky, both disavowed disunion sentiments, to-day, and said they would not consider the election of a Republican as ground for a separation. The extreme South looked glum at these declarations."

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?—"The Union must and shall be preserved," is the motto of all Republicans.

"If a Republican is elected President in 1860, we will dissolve the Union," is the motto of the Southern Democrats in Congress.

PLASTER BUSINESS.—Plaster has been considerably on the move of late. The Grand Rapids Enquirer, states that the Engle Mills, of that place, are delivering at the depot forty tons per day.

GEN. WALKER AS AN AUTHOR.—The New Orleans papers announce a forthcoming work on Nicaragua, by no less a person than the notorious Gen. WALKER.

The Republican National Convention.

A National Republican Convention will meet at Chicago on Wednesday the 13th day of June next, at 12 o'clock (noon,) for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice-President at the next election.

The Republican electors of the several States, the members of the People's party of Pennsylvania, and of the Opposition party of New-Jersey, and all others who are willing to co-operate with them in support of the candidates who shall there be nominated, and who are opposed to the policy of the present Administration; to Federal corruption and usurpation; to the extension of Slavery in the Territories; to the new and dangerous political doctrine that the Constitution, of its own force, carries Slavery into all the Territories of the United States; to the re-opening of the African slave-trade; to any inequality of rights among citizens; and who are in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas into the Union under the Constitution recently adopted by its people; of restoring the Federal Administration to a system of rigid economy, and to the principles of WASHINGTON and JEFFERSON; of maintaining inviolate the rights of the States, and defending the soil of every State and Territory from lawless invasion; and of preserving the integrity of this Union, and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws passed in pursuance thereof, against the conspiracy of the leaders of a sectional party to resist the majority principle as established in this Government at the expense of its existence, are invited to send from each State two delegates from every Congressional District and four delegates at large to the Convention.

Senator Seward and Common Schools.

CHICAGO, December 23.

Editor Chicago Journal:—Can you inform me whether Senator Seward, when Governor of New York, recommended the division of the School fund between the Catholics and Protestants? Did he recommend that the Bible should not be read in common schools?

By answering the above queries, you will much oblige me. PUBLICO.

[We have had the above enquiries so often propounded that we propose to answer them by extracts from Mr. Seward's Messages, while Governor of New York. Perhaps no public man has been more mis-stated and misrepresented than Senator S. upon this subject.—ED. JOURNAL.]

FROM GOV. SEWARD'S ANNUAL MESSAGE, 1841.

"I have not recommended nor do I seek the education of any class in foreign languages or in particular creeds or faiths, but fully believing with the author of the Declaration of Independence, that even error may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it, and therefore indulging no apprehensions from the influence of any language or creed among an enlightened people, I desire the education of the entire rising generation in all the elements of knowledge we possess, and in that tongue which is the universal language of our countrymen. To me the most interesting of all our republican institutions is the common school. I seek not to disturb in any manner its peaceful and assiduous exercises, and least of all with contentions about faith or forms. I desire the education of all the children in the commonwealth in morality and virtue, leaving matters of principle where, according to the principles of civil and religious liberty established by our constitution and laws, they rightfully belong."

FROM GOV. SEWARD'S MESSAGE, 1842.

"I submit, therefore, with entire willingness to approve whatever adequate remedy you may propose, the expediency of restoring to the people of the city of New York—what I am sure the people of no other part of the State would upon any consideration relinquish—the education of their children.

"For this purpose, it is only necessary to vest the control of the common schools in a board to be composed of commissioners elected by the people; which board shall apportion the school moneys among all the schools, including those now existing, which shall be organized and conducted in conformity to its general regulations and the laws of the State, in the proportion of the number of pupils instructed. It is not left doubtful that the restoration to the common schools of the city of this simple and equal feature of the common schools of the State, would remove every complaint, and bring into the seminaries the offspring of want and misfortune presented by a grand jury on a recent occasion as neglected children of both sexes who are found in hordes upon wharves and on corners of the streets, surrounded by evil associations, disturbing the public peace, committing petty depredations, and going from bad to worse, until their course terminates in high crimes and infamy.

"This proposition to gather the young from the streets and wharves into the nurseries which the State, solicitous for her security against ignorance, has prepared for them, has sometimes been treated as a device to appropriate the school fund to the endowment of seminaries for teaching languages and faiths, thus to perpetuate the prejudices it seeks to remove; sometimes as a scheme for dividing that precious fund among a hundred jarring sects, and thus increasing the religious animosities it strives to heal; and sometimes as a plan to subvert the prevailing religion and introduce one repugnant to the conscience of our fellow-citizens; while, in truth, it simply proposes, by enlightening equally the minds of all, to enable them to detect error wherever it may exist, and to reduce uncongenial masses into one intelligent, virtuous, harmonious and happy people.

Being now relieved from all such misconceptions, it presents the questions whether it is wiser and more humane to educate the offspring of the poor than to leave them to grow up in ignorance and vice; whether juvenile vice is more easily eradicated by the court of sessions than by common schools; whether parents have a right to be heard concerning the instruction and instructors of their children, and tax-payers in relation to the expenditure of public funds; whether, in a Republican government, it is necessary to interpose an independent corporation between the people and the schoolmaster; and whether it is wise and just to disfranchise an entire community of all control over public education, rather than suffer a part to be represented in proportion to its numbers and contributions.

Since such considerations are now involved what has hitherto been discussed as a question of benevolence and universal education, has become one of equal civil rights, religious tolerance, and liberty of conscience.—We could bear with us in our retirement from public service no recollection more worthy of being cherished through life than that of having met such a question in the generous and confiding spirit of our institutions, and of having decided it upon the immutable principles on which they are based."

HOW GOV. WISE'S PROMISES ARE KEPT.—The Cleveland Leader, speaking of the execution of Copeland, says:

Gov. Wise was telegraphed by the Mayor of Oberlin, A. N. Beecher, Esq., and received for answer that the body would be delivered by Gen. Taliaferro to any white citizen. Mr. Beecher then telegraphed a gentleman here, asking whether he would go to Charlestown and see that the body was placed in charge of the Express Company, or get some one to go. The gentleman replied affirmatively, and at once secured the services of the correspondent of one of the strongest pro-slavery papers in Kentucky. This correspondent, who is a Southerner, and strongly pro-slavery in sentiment, was furnished with the order from the gentleman in question, and also with a letter from the Hon. Mr. Botcler, who represents the Charlestown district, which was furnished at the request of the Hon. H. G. Blake. On his arrival at Charlestown he was subjected into the presence of Gen. Taliaferro, but on presenting his letters was put under arrest and kept for twelve hours, when he was permitted to return to Washington. The next morning the papers stated that the body of Copeland was given to the surgeons.

WIARD'S ICE BOAT.—We learn that a despatch has been received that the new ice boat had reached Chicago, and will soon be here.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

The ice is now tight as a drum upon the whole Upper Mississippi. The ice boat has now a good chance to test its quality. We shall expect to see it make a break for the North early next week.—La Crosse Union, 24th.

AWFUL CALAMITY BY FIRE!

Eight Persons Burned to Death—Several others Injured.

From the Hartford Courant, Dec. 21.

Yesterday morning at 7 1-2 o'clock, the Fuse Factory of Toy, Bickford & Co., situated near the Congregational Church, in the town of Simsbury, was totally destroyed by fire, the origin of which is unknown. It is said that a slight explosion was heard just before the flames burst out. In two minutes from this the building was all on fire, and soon burned down. The fire spread so rapidly that but a portion of the employees were enabled to escape; and eight women were burned to death, and four persons seriously injured. The names of the dead are, Miss Catherine Brisse, two girls named Kitchen, Mrs. Charles Lauson, Miss Orpha J. Bacon, and two sisters named Head. Mr. Jos. R. Toy, son of one of the proprietors, was very seriously burned; Mr. Griswold and Miss Sarah Babcock were also burned, but Mr. Race, our informant, was unable to state how severe their injuries are.

The building was 30 by 80 feet, and two stories in height. The operatives were not all at work; or the loss would have probably been greater. The buildings near by—a cotton and other factories—were saved from destruction by active and incessant work.—The building burned was filled with machinery, but nothing was saved. The loss, the amount of which we are unable to ascertain, must be quite large; but sinks into insignificance beside the terrible loss of life involved in the catastrophe.

The flames burst from every window in the building instantaneously after the explosion. Seven girls were at work in the upper rooms, and three women and two men in the lower story. All who worked in the room above, and Mrs. Lauson, who was one of the three women at work below, were killed, making the number of deaths eight, in all. Mr. Lauson, who worked in the factory, was near the building and immediately rushed to one of the windows, through which he dragged two sisters named Babcock, one of whom was seriously and the other slightly burned. Mr. Lauson reached through the window again, and called for his wife as long as he could breath in the sulphurous and smoky atmosphere, but received no answer. The remains of the dead could be recognized only by the place they occupied, or by the fragments of clothing remaining upon the bodies. They were all burned to a crisp, and in some cases the bones are all that remain of those who suffered the horrible death. The explosion occurred in the upper room where all the powder was used. All who worked here were killed, and the cause of the calamity will never be known.

Mr. Toy, already mentioned, and Mr. Edwin P. Griswold, who were at work below, received their first intimation of the accident by the streaming of the fire down upon them from above, burning their face, necks and hands severely. Mr. Griswold being near the door stepped out immediately. Mr. Toy held his breath, and shutting his eyes, started for the door. He failed to reach it, but found a window, and his hands being burned so as to be entirely useless, he broke it through with his head, after two trials, and jumped out into the flame. He is dangerously, if not fatally injured. In breaking through the window he received several severe cuts; his face and neck are badly burned, and the flesh is burned from his hands. Dr. Ellsworth has hopes of his ultimate recovery. Mr. Griswold was not dangerously injured.

The cotton factory for the manufacture of cord for the fuse, stood across a small stream from the burned building, and was connected with it by a small bridge, which ran from the second story of one to that of the other. Upon hearing the explosion, the foreman of the cotton factory, Mr. Chase, ran across the bridge and found Harriet Head lying by the door, with the blood flowing from her mouth. He drew her out but she died instantly.

The remains were taken to the town house, and a jury of inquest called. The body of Miss Head, which was taken from the door upon the bridge by Mr. Chase, was the only one that could be recognized.

At the time our informant left Simsbury, the jury had not returned their verdict, a discussion having arisen as to whether the deaths were caused by fire or the explosion. The general opinion is that death was produced by immediate suffocation from the smoke of the gunpowder. The names of the dead are:—Christina M. Kitchen, aged 14; Elizabeth Kitchen, aged 14; Orpha J. Bacon, aged 25; Catharine Brasee, aged 21; Mrs. Charles Lamson, aged 23; Elizabeth Goddard, aged 24; Elizabeth Head, aged 21, Harriet Head, aged 18.

The remains of the dead are to be collected together and buried in one grave, on Thursday, at 11 o'clock.

The appearance of the place indicated that the woodwork of the building was saturated with powder. The rules of the factory required that the floor should be swept four times a day—twice before noon and twice after. The fires in the building had not been stirred in the morning, nor the powder to be used for the day brought in. It appears as if the fire had been driven down from the upper room with great violence upon the employees below.

The Company has another factory which will be put into operation until this is rebuilt. Mr. Toy has not paid particular attention to his pecuniary loss, but estimates it at from $5,000 to $8,000. There was no insurance, of course, as insurance companies refuse risks upon such property.

Thursday in the House.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22, 1859.

To-day has been a great day in the House, in which the gain has been entirely upon the side of the Opposition, and in which the Administration has done nothing but lose.—The debate was opened in the morning in a lively manner by Mr. Anderson of Kentucky. He denounced the Disunion sentiments held and expressed by some of the Southern Democrats, and laid the blame of disorganization upon the Administration party in the House —where it belongs. He showed conclusively that the Southern Disunionists are not supported even at home, for here is a body of more than twenty Southern Representatives, representing a large Southern constituency, who, (the majority, at least,) utterly denounce any sentiment of Disunion.

In order to test the sincerity of the Democracy, and to show their willingness to organize the House, several of the Anti-Lecompton Democrats offered to unite upon Mr. Gilmer, if he could be elected. The Southern Democrats and the Northern Doughfaces boasted yesterday of their willingness to sacrifice almost anything to defeat the Republicans; and now, here was a chance. Did they do it? Not a bit of it! For two ballots they had an opportunity to show the sincerity of their promise; and then the men who had left Mr. Sherman returned, leaving the South Americans more disgusted than ever with the insincerity of the Lecompton Democracy. Mr. Lawrence Keitt obtained the floor after this, and made a begging, trembling sort of speech, earnestly beseeching all Southern men to come to the aid of their section of the country. Poor man, nobody volunteered to come to his help in this his hour of sore need.

But the crowning glory of the day was the manly and effective speech of Mr. Grow, on a resolution presented by Mr. Winslow of N. C., proposing to adjourn for the holidays. He refused to take the floor by any courtesy of the gentleman on the other side, but claimed it as his right. He charged home upon the Democracy that, from the very first day of the session, instead of trying to organize the House, they had discussed the subject of Slavery, while the Republicans had sat silently and heard their principles misrepresented in the grossest manner, and themselves called treasonable, and sectional, and incendiaries. The Democrats had discussed the Helper book, and advertised it in such a way as to circulate thousands of copies more than could have been done in any other way. And now, after wasting all this time now, while thousands of men were here with Government contracts in their hands, asking the Government to fulfil its pledges—now they propose to adjourn in order to amuse themselves, and leave these men to bankruptcy, and the Government to break its plighted faith.

Had a bombshell fallen on the Democratic side of the House it could not have created much more excitement than did this speech of Mr. Grow's: they fluttered like a convoy of wounded birds, and the almost universal cry of "Mr. Clerk," which went up from that side of the House as Mr. Grow closed, sounded like the cry of distress from a vessel when a double-shotted broadside has swept her decks and crushed her hull. Amid the din, a motion to adjourn was made and put, and the Clerk, glad to escape the confusion, declared it carried.

RACINE BUILDING ASSOCIATION.

NOTICE OF ADJOURNMENT.

THE DIRECTORS GIVE NOTICE TO the Shareholders and the Public that over one half the Shares are now taken, which, considering the amount of labor required to make it shorter in the monthly meeting system, is equivalent to it's whole to be sold before the distribution shall take place, and therefore a post ponement for a short time is necessary. The Directors respectfully solicit the assistance of the Shareholders and the Public to enable them to make a distribution on the 1st DAY OF JANUARY NEXT, to which day it is postponed.—Many persons, desirous of intending to become shareholders, went away the last day before their intention, but should do so, the embarrassments in the way of a full and fair distribution at the earliest day practicable, must be apparent to everyone. We hope no further postponement will be necessary, and that all intending to become shareholders will do so at once. For Shares and Programmes apply to JOHN DEARSLEY, or JOHN ELKINS.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!! Dyspepsia!!!
What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA IS OUR NATIONAL DISease—weak stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habits, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstupified head, and attacks of the headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics, or laxatives, But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases.—This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head, and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty remedies, in large vials, and morocco case, $5; do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $2.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING WHICH IS now so universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers, head aches, piles costiveness, constipation, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. H. BROWN OF OSSAWATOMIE.

John Brown of Ossawatomie
Spake on his dying day:
"I will not have to shrive my soul
A priest in slavery's pay.
But, let some poor slave mother,
Whom I have striven to free,
With her children from the gallows-stair
Put up a prayer for me."

John Brown of Ossawatomie,
They led him out to die;
And lo!—a poor slave mother
Was there with her baby child.
Then the bold, blue eye grew tender,
And the old harsh face grew mild,
As he stooped between the living ranks
And kissed the negro's child.

The shadows of his stormy life
That moment fell apart;
Within the rank and ready hand,
Within his loving heart,
That kiss from all its guilty means
Redeemed the good intent,
And round the crazy fanatic's hair
The martyr's aureole bent!

Perish with him the folly
That seeks through evil good,
Long live the generous purpose
Unstained with human blood!
Not the raid of midnight terror,
But the thought which underlies;
Not the outlaw's pride of daring
But the Christian's sacrifice.

Oh! never may you Sharp-rifled Hills
The Northern rifle hear,
Nor see the light of burning homes
Flash on the negro's spear.
But let the free-winged angel Truth
Their gnarded passes scale,
To teach that right is more than might
And justice more than mail!

So calmly shall Virginia set
Her battle in array;
In vain her trampling squadrons knead
The winter snow with clay.
She may strike the pouncing eagle,
But she'll dare not harm the dove;
And every gate she bars to Hate
Shall open wide to Love!

Death of Thomas De Quincey.

The death of the celebrated English opium eater is announced in the advices by the last European arrival as having taken place at Edinburgh on Thursday, the 8th of December. For several months past he had resided in that city instead of his rural home at Lasswade, chiefly for the purpose of superintending the complete edition of his works now passing through the press of Messrs. Hogg. His health had been seriously affected for some weeks, although with his habits of a confirmed invalid, no apprehension of his speedy death was entertained by his friends, until very recently.

The Scotsman says that "almost till the very last his perceptions were as vivid, his interest in knowledge and affairs as keen as ever; and while his bodily frame, wasted by suffering and thought, day by day faded and shrunk, his mind retained unimpaired its characteristic capaciousness, activity and acuteness. Within a week or two before his death he talked readily, and with all that delicacy of discrimination of which his conversation partook equally with his writings, of such matters as occupied public attention; displaying so much of elasticity and power that even those who had the rare privilege of seeing him in those latter days were startled and shocked by the seeming suddenness of his death."

Thomas De Quincey was born in a suburb of Manchester, in 1786, and was consequently in the seventy-third year of his age at the time of his death. He was principally known by his graphic autobiographical sketches, which, under the title of "Confessions of an English Opium Eater," so vividly portray his illusions and sufferings while under the influence of that pernicious drug. His other voluminous writings, which embrace a vast range of subjects, and are remarkable for their ponderous erudition, and ambitious style, are familiar to many of our readers from the excellent Boston edition commenced in 1851.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Rev. Wm. Hosmer, editor of "The Northern Independent," Auburn, N. Y.; the Rev. E. H. Crossey, D. D., Rector of St. Peter's Church, of Auburn, N. Y.; the Rev. H. V. Ames, Chaplain of the State Prison; the Rev. Spencer M. Rice, Rector, New Bedford, Mass.; the Rev. Allen Steele, New York Conference; the Rev. Samuel Nicholas, Philadelphia Conference, N. Y.; the Rev. P. S. Pratt, Bernard, Vt.; the Rev. John A. Mobie, Bedford, N. Y.; Hon. Ely Moore, Utica, N. Y.; the Hon. Neal Dow, Portland, Me.; the Hon. Sebuyler Colfax, South Bend, Ind.; the Hon. George Dunn, Attorney General, D. C.; Hon. Jacob Brenholtz, Esq., Editor of The Ohio State Journal, Columbus, Ohio; the Hon. K. H. Graham, Moline, Ill.; the Hon. Thomas J. Chase, Evansville, Ind.; Hon. Joseph Benedict, Utica, N. Y.; Wm. Bristol, Esq., Utica, N. Y.; A. S. Pond, Esq., Utica, N. Y.; James Plunkett, Esq., Nashville, Tenn.

LIST OF SPECIFIC REMEDIES.

No. 1.—For Fever, Congestion, and Inflammation.
No. 2.—For Worm Fever, Worm Colic, Wetting the bed.
No. 3.—For Colic, Crying, Teething, and Wakefulness of infants.
No. 4.—For Diarrhœa, Cholera Infantum, and Summer Complaints.
No. 5.—For Colic, Gripings, Dysentery, or Bloody Flux.
No. 6.—For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.
No. 7.—For Coughs, Colds, Influenza, and Sore Throat.
No. 8.—For Tooth-ache, Face-ache, and Neuralgia.
No. 9.—For Headache, Vertigo, Heat and Fullness of the Head.
No. 10.—DYSPEPSIA PILLS.—For Weak and Deranged Stomach, Constipation, and Liver Complaint.
No. 11.—FOR FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, Scanty, Painful, or Suppressed Periods.
No. 12.—For Leucorrhœa, or Whites Menses, and Bearing Down of Females.
No. 13.—For Croup, Hoarse Cough, Bad Breathing.
No. 14.—SALT RHEUM PILLS.—For Erysipelas, Eruptions, Pimples on the Face.
No. 15.—RHEUMATIC PILLS.—For Pain, Lameness, or Soreness in the Chest, Back, Loins, or Limbs.
A.—For Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Old Misunagued Ague and Fever.
P.—For Piles, Blind or Bleeding, Internal or External.
O.—For Sore, Weak, or Inflamed Eyes and Eyelids, Failing, Weak, or Blurred Sight.
C.—For Cancer, of long standing or recent, either with or without the use of the knife.
W. C.—For Whooping Cough, abating its violence and shortening its course.

In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the taking or giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old and obstinate diseases, where, by time, proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance.—Often the cure of a single chronic disease, such as Dyspepsia, Piles, or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

Sands' Pale Cream Ale.

HAVING RECENTLY PURCHASED the Spring Brewery on Eighth and Chestnut streets, with the view of making the above mentioned beverage in Milwaukee, I would respectfully solicit the patronage of the public and those saloons and Restaurants that desire to keep a prime Ale on draught for their patrons.

To those who are familiar with Sands' Chicago Pale Cream Ale, I need say nothing as to its quality; to those who are not, I would simply ask a trial, and I make it myself my interest to do all in my power to make Sands' Pale Cream Ale as popular a beverage in Milwaukee and vicinity as it is in Chicago and surrounding country, and trust by the assistance of lovers of good Ale to give Sands' Milwaukee Pale Cream and Amber Ale a reputation second to none in the West.

Saloons and families in city or country supplied by the barrel, half-barrel or case, or in bottles Also, Porter bottled or in cask as any size Orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to. Price List sent by mail on application.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY EVENING, December 27th.

No receipts were reported to-day. For the 24 hours ending yesterday noon the receipts were reported as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bus.	Oats, bus.	Corn, bus.	Barley, bus.	Rye, bus.
By M&Mis RR	365	3,369	....	346	....	60
By M & W RR	15	978	....	....	....	....
Total....	380	4,347	....	346	....	60

Shipments by the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway yesterday included: 1,114 bbls pork, 85 do beef, 200 dressed hogs.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—Receipts: 2,196 bbls flour; 10,057 bus wheat; 7,358 bus corn; 2,096 bus oats.

There was a fair demand for flour to-day, and the market was more active at about yesterday's prices, perhaps a shade better. Wheat, under a fair milling and shipping demand, advanced 1½c. Corn quiet and steady. Oats unchanged. Rye in good demand and steady. Barley quiet.—Press & Tribune.

PORK AND PROVISION TRADE.

CINCINNATI, DEC. 26.—There was less life in the hog market on Saturday than at any previous time this season. This was attributable to several causes. First and chiefly, large receipts, the arrivals footing up 9,000 head. Second, a continued scarcity of money, and third, an indisposition to make engagements until after to-day. The weather, which was unseasonably cold, operated against sellers, but this difficulty has since been removed, a decided change having taken place in the temperature yesterday. In prices there was a decline of 15@20c, and the fall would have been greater, had holders manifested a disposition to press sales. Packers are now very sensitive on the subject of receipts—more so, perhaps, than at any previous time this season, and from this the effect of liberal supplies hereafter may be anticipated. A few choice, large averaging 180 lbs, were obtainable at $5 90; 180 to 190 at $5 60@5 70; and 200 lbs and upwards, $5 40@5 50, with few buyers. Provisions, with the exception of lard, were quiet and steady. The latter only was heard of was 200 bbls at $16 25. Nothing of consequence done in bulk meats, and prices were nominally unchanged. There were small sales of green hams at $7 75@7 90 for hams, and 7c for sides. Sugar cured hams was a good demand at 10c, but holders mostly asked 10½c.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 23th.—The receipts of hogs to-day were 3,665 live and dressed, and the market was quiet and rather firm at the opening but dull at the close, with sales at $5 25@5 50 for live, and $4 60@4 80 for live. Sales of dressed were:

32 hogs averaging 134 lbs at $5 00.

The provision market was buist and firm. Mess pork was offered freely at $15 50, but there were no buyers at over $15 00. Lard quiet and nominal at 9¼@9½c.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

TUESDAY EVENING, December 27th.

FLOUR—Remains quiet, but is held firmly. The only sale to-day was 50 bbls "Merchants Mills," a favorite Extra brand, at $4,50 delivered.

WHEAT—Was firm to-day at Saturday's prices, No. 1 Spring selling on the track at 95c; delivered at 96c; Club at 97@98c; and Extra at 99c@$1,00, including a sale of 10,000 bus No. 1, for delivery April 1st, f. o. b. at $1,05—equal to about 97c now on the track. Sales: 1,375 bus Extra delivered at $1,00; 950 bus do at 99c; 350 bus Club delivered at 95c; 360 bus do at 97c; 850 bus No. 1 delivered at 96c; 350 bus do on the track at 95c; 10,000 bus do f. o. b. April 1st at $1,05; 710 bus No. 2 in store and on the track at 93½c.

OATS—Sales 500 bus at 32c in store.

BARLEY—Firmer. Sales 115 bus No. 1 delivered at 60c; 100 bus Extra White at 63c.

RYE—Scarce and higher. Sales 95 bus delivered at 66c.

GRASS SEED—Sales 40 bus prime Timothy at $2,25.

DRESSED HOGS—The market was scarcely so firm today, and although a few very nice lots of medium sized hogs were sold at high figures, for shipment, packers were not as ready to buy as on Saturday, and prices did not go outside of $5,75 except for heavy averages. The following are a portion of the sales:

260 hogs averaging 220 lbs at $6,00 ₱ cwt.
